OVERVIEW OF ACOF

The Film Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP), through its FilmPhilippines Office (FPO), introduced the ASEAN Co-Production Fund (ACOF) to promote the Philippines as a filming destination and a co-production partner for ASEAN countries by providing financial incentives for international production companies in the production and post-production of creative content in the Philippines.

ACOF is a selective fund that will support accepted projects from PHP 2.5 Million (USD 50,000) up to PHP 7.5 Million (USD 150,000).

QUALIFYING PHILIPPINE PRODUCTION EXPENDITURES (QPPE)

Qualifying Philippine Production Expenditures, the allowable expenditure incurred in the Philippines for the purposes of producing and making the project, pursuant to FPI guidelines.

The expenses will include eligible costs from production to post-production of the project and covers the period from the date the FPO confirms the reception of the complete Provisional Application and ends at the date of confirmation of the complete Final Verification by the FPO. Spending must be in local currency and with Filipino registered businesses and/or Filipino individuals. These must be reported to FDCP during the Final Verification process, along with original documentary requirements like official receipts. For more information about eligible costs, see QPPE Guidelines and Supporting Documents).

Allowed Expenses under QPPE

- Rights Acquisition
- Salaries, Wages, and Social Contribution. If filming will not be taking place in the Philippines, only salaries for above-the-line key creative personnel will be allowed (i.e. limited to producer, director, scriptwriter, cinematographer, editor, production designer, composer, and cast)
- Technical Goods and Services
- Project Related Overheads and Other Goods and Services
- Post-Production and Animation
- Accommodation
- Meals
- Transportation and Travel Expenses
- Promotion Expenditures in the Philippines
- Legal Costs
- Producer's Fee (at least 10% of the Fund amount)

INCENTIVE CALCULATION GUIDELINES

1. Successful applicants of ACOF can receive a fund between PHP 2.5 Million (USD 50,000) to PHP 7.5 Million (USD 150,000).

2. Ten percent (10%) of the full Fund amount must be spent for the Filipino producer / applicant company's fee. Fifty percent (50%) of the remaining Fund must be spent in QPPE, as illustrated in the example below:

Full Fund Amount (100%): PHP 3 Million

Filipino Producer's Fee: PHP 300,000 (10% of Full Fund Amount)

Remaining Fund Amount: PHP 2.7 Million (Full Fund Amount - Filipino producer's fee)

Minimum QPPE Spend: PHP 1.35 Million (at least 50% of Remaining Fund Amount)

3. FDCP Accounting shall deduct the following from the total cash fund amount:

- A fixed amount of PHP ten thousand (10,000) (approx. USD 200) to cover the administration processing cost of the FDCP.
- An additional amount of PHP ten thousand (10,000) (approx. USD 200) for external audit fees. Rates may vary depending on the latest rate

4. The payment shall be made in two installments. The first fifty percent (50%) of the fund will be released sixty (60) days prior to the confirmed first day of principal photography or animation production or post-production of the project. The remaining fifty percent (50%) will be released within thirty (30) days after the approval of the Final Verification documents. Both tranches will be transferred to the applicant's Land Bank of the Philippines bank account.

13. Subject to the corresponding rights of the applicant granted by the foreign co-producer, FDCP shall be granted the right of first refusal as the project's Philippine premiere platform

PROVISIONAL APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Applicant producers should contact the FPO early to discuss their project and to explore details surrounding ACOF. As part of the ACOF application, the project can also avail of the Film Location Engagement Desk, a one-stop-shop services desk for foreign and local audiovisual productions aiming to film in the Philippines. For more details on FLEX, please visit: <http://www.filmphilippines.com/film-now/film-location-engagement-desk-flex>

2. Applicants must fill out and submit the completed ACOF Provisional Application Form and all required documents to filmphilippines@fdcp.ph with the subject field labeled “ACOF PROVISIONAL APPLICATION” during an application cycle. Technical requirements on the application files may be found here: <http://www.filmphilippines.com/asean-co-production-fund-acof-apply-now>

Important Note: Please submit accurate information as the declaration made in the Provisional Application are used as basis for the Selection Committee's decision. The QPPE declared in the Provisional Application will be compared to the final receipts submitted at the Final Verification stage.

3. The FPO will verify all the documents and may ask the applicant to provide further supporting documents. After confirmation, the application will receive a certificate informing them of the submission of completed application. After which, applicants may already begin spending for their QPPE.

4. After confirming the completion of the application, the FPO will then submit the project to the Selection Committee for deliberation and final selection of grantees for that particular cycle. Submitted projects for provisional application will be evaluated on the following:

- Degree to which the work promotes the ASEAN culture & territory
- Degree to which the work contributes to the ASEAN film industry
- Degree to which a Filipino producer participates in the creative production of the work
- The global quality of the project
- The financial strength and stability of the project
- The international distribution potential through festival, theatrical/VOD release and platform in order to reach international audiences

5. The applicant will be notified of the Committee's decision within two (2) weeks after the conclusion of the deliberation process.

6. If selected, the applicant must sign the Notification of Selection and the ACOF Memorandum of Agreement. A meeting may be held to discuss the terms of the Agreement and to clarify any questions the projects may have.
7. After the signing of the MOA by both parties, an orientation meeting will be held with the FPO and FDCP Accounting to assist the project on the documentary requirements needed to comply with the QPPE requirements of the Program.
8. As stated in the Eligibility section, projects must begin principal photography/animation production/post-production within 6 months from its selection to receive the ACOF Fund. Should there be a delay, the applicant must notify the FPO and give clear and reasonable explanations for the delay, subject to the approval of FPO.
9. The applicant must open a Land Bank of the Philippines of the Philippines account in any Land Bank of the Philippines branches to carry out deposit transactions of the fund.
10. FDCP will release the first tranche of the grant at least two (2) months before the first day of principal photography or animation production or post-production. To prompt the release, the applicant must submit the documentary requirements as specified for the first tranche (Refer to Requirements – For Selected Applicants).
11. The first tranche of the grant will be transferred directly to the Land Bank of the Philippines of the Philippines account of the applicant. Any fund transfer fees will be charged to the applicant.
12. The FPO will notify the applicant via email once the first tranche of fund transaction is complete. The applicant must issue a valid company Official Receipt and deliver the hard copy to the Film Development Council of the Philippines 855 Kalaw Avenue, Ermita, Manila, 1000 Metro Manila, Philippines.

FINAL VERIFICATION PROCESS

1. Each project has a maximum period of two (2) years after its selection date to complete the Final Verification Process. Within this period, the applicant may already activate the Verification as soon as the declared production activity has finished by filling out and submitting the ACOF Final Verification Form and submit all required documents to filmphilippines@fdcp.ph. Technical requirements on the application files may be found here: <http://www.filmphilippines.com/asean-co-production-fund-acof-apply-now>.

Note: Prior to the final submission, the projects may request for a meeting with the FPO to consult about the documentary requirements and supporting details needed for the Final Verification.

2. The FPO will verify all the documents and submit it to FDCP Accounting for verification. Additional supporting documents may be required during this process as needed.

3. Once the Final Verification Application is approved, the cash fund will be processed and deposited to the Land Bank of the Philippines account of the applicant within ninety (90) days after the completion of the Final Verification documents (refer to no. 2). Any fund transfer fees will be charged to the applicant.

4. The FPO will notify the applicant via email once the fund transaction is complete. The applicant must issue a valid company Official Receipt and deliver the hard copy to the FDCP office at 855 T.M. Kalaw St. Ermita, Manila.

Should the applicant have plans to distribute their project in the Philippines, the applicant may coordinate with the FDCP's UniPhilippines and may consider among its own exclusive platforms, such as the FDCP Channel and Cinematheques. To learn more, see UniPhilippines below.

CANCELLATION AND WITHHOLDING PROCESS

1. The incentive measure shall be nullified with immediate effect, and the FDCP can ask for the cash fund reimbursement under the following conditions:

- a. The project spent less than 50% of Fund amount in QPPE
- b. The project failed to provide at least 10% of the Fund amount for the producer/applicant company fee
- c. The applicant failed to submit the Final Verification requirements within the two (2) year validity period
- d. The applicant is unable to produce any documents or details asked for in the Final Verification
- e. The applicant submitted false information and documents that were obtained by fraud, material inaccuracies or misrepresentation
- f. The final version of the project is not suitable and not compliant with eligible contents as provided in the Guidelines
- g. The project caused a negative impact on the natural resources and environment. Violation of any of these laws shall constitute a negative impact on the natural resources and environment: Ecological Solid Waste Management Act of 2000 (R.A. No. 9003) In coordination with the Local Government Unit concerned, under the Philippine Clean Air Act of 1999 (R.A. No. 8749); The Indigenous Peoples Rights Act of 1997 (R.A. No. 8371); Toxic Substances and Hazardous and Nuclear Wastes Control Act of 1990 (R.A. No. 6969); The Pollution Control Law (P.D. No. 984); Marine Pollution Decree of 1976 (P.D. No. 979).

Provided, the applicant may appeal the nullification within sixty (60) days from receipt of the notice of nullity, and provide an explanation as to why the rebate should be reconsidered. FDCP has thirty (30) days to resolve the same. No further questions may be entertained afterward. The nullity shall become final and irrevocable after the lapse of sixty (60) days to appeal.

Further, FDCP will prohibit the applicant, its principals, and any parent or subsidiary companies from applying or accessing further funding from FPI for a period of two (2) consecutive years upon written notice.

2. The FDCP shall impose a ten to twenty percent 10%-20% penalty on the final Fund if the applicant failed to communicate to FDCP the significant creative and financial changes that were reflected in the Final Verification as compared to the Provisional Application. Failure to send a letter informing FDCP of the above-mentioned changes prior to the FDCP's receipt of the Final Verification is deemed failure to communicate. Penalties shall be applied by FDCP at its discretion and by way of deducting from the provisional grant granted to the project.

3. The FDCP reserves the right to withhold the approved incentive payment, in the event of any legal dispute, arbitration, or court proceedings, until the matter is settled or the FDCP decides, after assessment of the dispute, that it is satisfied to release the payment. Provided, that the settlement must be within the two (2) year period upon selection of the project.

DISCLAIMER

1. FilmPhilippines may decline to accept and/or reject an application if it does not follow and/or comply with these Guidelines. These Guidelines are designed to be read in conjunction with the relevant application form. As the guidelines and application form are subject to changes and updates, the applicant should ensure that he/she has the most current version of these documents by checking <http://www.filmphilippines.com/asean-co-production-fund-acof> prior to submitting his/her application.
2. FDCP reserves the right to create, revoke, and modify at any time, in any way its entry requirements, and guidelines at its absolute discretion without prior notice. Finalists and submitted entries shall be bound by any amendments or addition to the entry requirements and guidelines herewith.
3. All the information provided by the applicant producer will be held by the FPO on a strictly commercial-in-confidence basis. Information will only be provided to the Committee, Philippine government and an independent film production consultant, if necessary.
4. Applicant producers should also contact FPO early, before production commences, to discuss their project and to explore details surrounding FPI. Contact details for FPO are listed further.
5. The ACOF is a selective (NOT ASSURED or AUTOMATIC) awarded fund that is subject to strict evaluation and audit of qualified expenses.
6. All applications are made at the applicant's own risk. The FDCP is not liable for any loss, damage, or costs arising directly or indirectly from the application process, the FDCP's decision to refuse the project, or from dealing with the application in any manner.
7. The decision of the Committee is final and irrevocable. The FPO is not obliged to give any further explanation on the results.
8. While receiving the ACOF recognizes the potential of your project, it does not imply an ongoing commitment to future FDCP financing. Each application is considered on its own merits.
